NOW SHOWING

at the BASE THEATER

Cellular-A random wrong number to his cell phone sends a young man into a high-stakes race against time to save a woman's life. With no knowledge of Jessica Martin other than her hushed, panicked voice on the other end of the tenuous cell phone connection, Ryan is quickly thrown into a world of deception and murder on his frantic search to find and save her. Starring: Chris Evans, Kim Basinger, Jason Statam, Jessica Biel, Noah Emmerich, (Rated PG-13 for violence, terror situations, language and some sexual references-1 hr. 34 min.)

Wicker Park-A man is caught in an obsessive search for a woman he fell deeply in love with, a woman who vanished without a trace. Two years after her disappearance, he catches a glimpse of her in a local bar and begins a twisting search to find her and discover what really happened. Starring: Josh Hartnett, Matthew Lillard, Rose Byrne, Diane Kruger, Jessica Pare (Rated PG-13 for sexuality and language-1 hr. 55 min.)

Resident Evil: Apocalypse-An elite military agent, Alice, finds herself stranded in the ruins of Raccoon City following a virus outbreak which has turned the city's inhabitants into bloodthirsty zombies. Searching for a way to contain the virus, Alice also teams up with other survivors, who include Jill Valentine, who finds herself being hunted down by a massive monster called Nemesis with ties to Alice. Starring: Milla Jovovich, Sienna Guillory, Mike Epps, Oded Fehr, Jared Harris (Rated R for non-stop violence, language and some nudity-1 hr. 34 min.)

Two Brothers-An epic adventure story about the power of friendship, the bond between brothers and the spirit that connects us all. Two Brothers is a story of twin tiger cubs – one shy and gentle, the other, bold and fierce – who are born among temple ruins of an exotic jungle, but are one day separated by fate. Starring: Guy Pearce, Freddie Highmore, Mai Anh Le, Philippine Leroy-Beaulieu, Jean-Claude Dreyfus (Rated PG for mild violence-1 hr 45 min.)
